

Tasha Walsh (she/her)

Loaned Executive, NPHI
CEO, ConnectionsPlus Healthcare + Hospice

Tasha Walsh, Licensed Clinical Social Worker and Professional Certified Coach, has been on the leading cusp of the health and wellness field for more than 30 years. She has helped organizations develop a positive workplace culture while implementing best practices in their service line. As an executive coach, Tasha excels at helping leaders reinforce their effectiveness and foster balance in their lives.

Tasha served as the Chief Learning Officer for an international behavioral healthcare company, providing key strategic resources and guidance in leadership and professional development. In this role, she was a key team member for an innovative NHI funded research/practice partnership with Vanderbilt University focused on measurement-based feedback interventions in integrated healthcare. She is proudest about establishing an award-winning leadership development coaching program.

Currently, Tasha serves as CEO of ConnectionsPlus Healthcare + Hospice in the southern Shenandoah Valley/Appalachia region. Along with her CEO role and coaching practice, she is a member of the faculty for the Healthcare Coaching Institute. She brings extensive experience in positive psychology, organizational and professional development, and behavioral healthcare.

In addition to her capacity at ConnectionsPlus Healthcare + Hospice, Tasha serves NPHI as a Loaned Executive, drawing upon her expertise in educational initiatives to benefit NPHI's 100+ member organizations.
